

Free activity

“What do you think is necessary to improve the quality of education in today’s world? Answer this question in a paragraph. Include some of the phrases stated below.”

- A main problem in education is the fact that...
- A main problem in our schools is that...
- It is known that...
- That schools should...is clear.
- That students need...is obvious.
- It is absolutely essential that...
- It is also desirable that...
- I would recommend that...
- We must insist that...
- The result of making changes like these will be that...

“improve the quality of education in today’s world” can be placed by another issue/topic depending on what you do in class.

Adapted from: Foley, M. And Hall, D. (2005). Advanced Learners’ Grammar. New York. Longman.